

THE ELMS

CANDIDATE INFORMATION

www.trentschools.net

Welcome

The Elms is an independent co-educational school for children aged from 6 weeks to 11 years old. Located in Long Eaton, Nottinghamshire, The Elms is part of Trent College, and enjoys a beautiful, shared 45-acre campus with state-of-the-art facilities, including modern classrooms and sports facilities, as well as dedicated Nursery and Pre-School buildings, and wonderful outdoor learning facilities.

The Elms journey begins in the Nursery, which was recently rated 'Outstanding' in all areas. Here learning through play and exploration builds confidence and curiosity about the world around them.

As children progress through the school, the focus on exceptional pastoral care and inspirational teaching, along with a vast array of enrichment opportunities, ensure that our children leave us with the independence and resilience to embark successfully upon their senior school education.

Rated 'Excellent' across the whole school by the Independent Schools Inspectorate in 2021, we have highly qualified and experienced teaching staff who are committed to providing an excellent standard of education. We also have a large population of support staff, ensuring that our friendly school and beautiful campus operate to the very highest standards and our pupils are happy and flourish.

Our Location

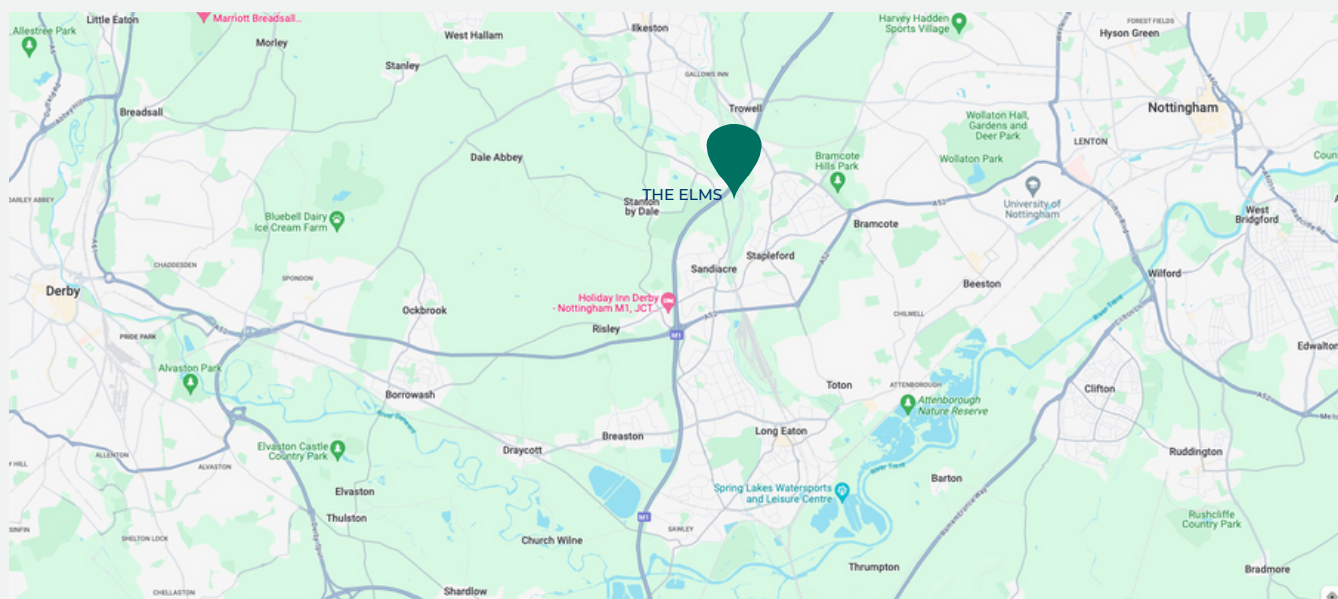

Trent College and The Elms are conveniently situated on the border of Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire.

Ideally located at the heart of the UK's motorway system, we are only 2 miles from junction 25 of the M1, which provides easy access to the M42 and A1.

Reaching Trent College by rail couldn't be easier. Long Eaton boasts its own train station, located 1.5 miles from the schools. Rail routes through Long Eaton run along the Midlands Main Line route, with direct routes to London, Loughborough, Leicester, Birmingham, Nottingham, Derby, Chesterfield and Sheffield.

Our Local Community

Working in partnership and serving the community are natural and very important values at Trent College and The Elms. We work with many local schools in Long Eaton and the wider Erewash borough to increase opportunities and aspirations, and to share the school's excellent grounds, facilities and specialist staff.

Level 3 Teaching Assistant

Full time, fixed term contract for academic year 2024/2025

Responsible to: Head, under direction of the Head of Learning Support and Class Teacher

Purpose: To assist in the support, inclusion and development of pupils across The Elms.
The Elms

Situated on a striking 45-acre campus on the border of Nottingham and Derbyshire in Long Eaton, The Elms is the Nursery and Junior School to Trent College.

The Elms Infant and Junior School is a co-educational, independent day school for 4 -11 year olds. The Elms Pre-School and Nursery welcomes children from 6 weeks to 4 years old.

The school aims to nurture enquiring minds and increase self-confidence, so pupils will enjoy asking questions and making decisions for themselves. Pupils are provided with a wealth of learning opportunities, enabling each child to grow, learn and flourish in a supportive and stimulating environment.

The wellbeing of pupils is at the core of everything at the school. Getting to know each child as an individual and their needs as a learner, means we can deliver exceptional standards of pastoral care, enabling them to achieve their personal best.

Responsibilities:

Support for pupils

- To work under the instruction of the Head of Learning Support, members of the Senior Leadership Team and/or the class teacher to support the high-quality teaching, learning and pastoral needs of the individual or of small groups of children.
- To support and implement structured evidence-based interventions and Individual Learning Plans for children with SEND.
- To assist and support external agency workers where required.
- To assist and supervise children during online screening and diagnostic work.
- To promote inclusion and acceptance of all pupils within the classroom, encouraging children to interact and work cooperatively with others and engage with all activities.
- To provide positive feedback and effective assessment for individualised learning for pupils, developing an understanding of how to motivate and encourage the individual child to develop independent learning skills.
- To be responsible for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young people within The Elms.

Support for Teachers

- To provide support for learning activities through contribution to planning, preparation and use of online resources as appropriate.
- To assess, feedback and record evidence of achievement, personal response and progress of pupils through agreed monitoring systems and individual targets.
- To establish constructive relationships with parents and / or carers by supporting a dialogue between home and school where appropriate.
- To accompany class teachers and pupils on educational visits when possible / appropriate.

Support for The Elms

- To promote and support the Behaviour Policy of The Elms and to be proactive in managing behaviour, independence and integration of children, both within the classroom and around the school.
- To be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, equal opportunities, health and safety, security, confidentiality, data protection and the reporting of concerns to the appropriate person.
- To attend and participate in regular meetings and in training or other activities as required by the Head.
- To support and comply with the performance management system for staff and the ethos of continuous professional development.
- To undertake broadly similar duties commensurate with the level of the post as required by the Head, which may include Early Morning Care and Lunch/Playground Duties.
- To Support the clubs and activity programme across the school.
- Attend one Open Morning event during the year.
- To Keep first aid qualification up to date by attending training as directed by the Head.

Terms and Benefits

- Full time, fixed term contract for academic year 2024/2025.
- Monday-Friday, 8am until 5pm.
- Staff can enjoy free lunches in the Obolensky Dining Hall during term time.
- Free car parking is available on site and staff have access to a cycle to work scheme.
- Staff are able to make free use of the school gym, swimming pool and leisure facilities at designated staff times.
- A flexible retirement plan run by TPT Solutions (formerly The Pensions Trust), including death in service benefit.
- Enhanced sick pay is available to all staff, and enhanced family benefits such as maternity pay.
- Staff are eligible for fee remission for children attending the school, in line with our policy.]
